Dear Haqqi A. Karim: It was a pleasant surprise to receive your kind letter and the two Iraq notes. Having thousands of duplicate notes and coins, I will be glad to exchange pieces with you. I am strictly a collector and do not sell numismatic items. If you have additional Iraq denominations in any series I would welcome them. May I start by sending you Bolivia or some country in the Americas? I think we should only send a few notes in one letter as you did. You already have my name and address and now you have my email address, but for convenience I will repeat it. Eric P. Newman, 6450 Cecil Avenue, St. Louis, MO 63105, USA

Your April 9 Registered letter arrived April 19, 2001 and I appreciate your confidence and enthusiasm. You wrote me to contact you by Email when it had arrived, although you say that is costly to you. I had sent you by normal mail on April 9, 2001 a letter with 4 Bolivian items in it and I hope you have received it. I will send a registered letter soon to your other address with many more items. A friend of mine can use a set of Iraq pieces also and I would welcome anything from Asia such as Afghan, Saudi, Lebanon, Kuwait, Oman, Syria whether older or newer types and not necessarily uncirculated. I see what is in the published books but pay little attention to suggested market values. I hope we can establish a mutually beneficial correspondence. Your ability to read and write English is helpful. Isn't it interesting that Europe and America adopted Arabic numbers because they were so excellent and the Arab nations who developed Arabic numbers changed to Indian numbers to a great extent. Kind regards.

Dear Ms. Karim:

I am sending this letter to you at your Jordan address by registered mail as you instructed me to do. I Emailed you that I was doing it as we both thought there might be difficulty in ordinary mail to your own P.O. Box. There are 24 pieces enclosed, consisting of two uncirculated genuine Confederate States of America pieces dated 1864; Bolivia numbers 114,118,120,121,122,128,129,139,131,138,139,140,141,143,147,156.& 164; Philippine National Bank $20; Japanese Occupation of Philippine Islands 1000 pesos; and Nicaragua 168,169 & 170. When you send your next group to me please let me know what arrived and how long it takes for you to get your Jordan mailings. I welcome another set of Iraq for a friend here. As I Emailed you any of the Gulf States issues would be welcome such as Oman, Dubai, Kuwait, Qatar, Saudi or any of the new Soviet Union countries or the old ones like the one Armenia piece which you sent. It is not necessary to send only crisp pieces as nice notes with a little use are welcome. I do American numismatic research and writing for pleasure and have been writing and collecting for over 40 years. When get further into this exchanging of paper money we will have to figure out a practical way to exchange silver coins which you seem to like more than other metals. My best to you. Eric P. I presume you are familiar with HAQQI KARIM of Baghdad who wrote several people in IBNS and wants to trade paper money. I responded to be nice and received some Iraqi notes which she sent in exchange for a nice batch of notes I sent to her. They usually steal pieces sent to her. She sent me more than I need and I will give you some if you wish. She also sent some minor varieties which are misspellings (in Arabic I presume). What do you know about this? She wants American and Canadian etc. and probably gets her notes free from your friend Saddam's treasury dump truck. Iraq formerly Eric

As I said in my recent Email to you in Baghdad I have been sick but now think I have recovered. Your last group of bank notes, with many of the former parts of the Soviet Union, were very interesting and I would like you to send more of those. I hope you can send Belarus, Uzbekistan, Lithuania, Latvia , Ukraine, Moldavia, Turkmenistan, etc. of different denominations.

For you this time I am sending a group of early material, particularly U.S. when there were many different types of issuers. They are not in new shape because they were commonly circulated and had real value for their time. Many are well over 100 years old. CANADA. 25c (1900); 25c (1923); Clifton $5 (1877)

U.S. $1 Military Monet Series 472; Mining Scrip 10c & 25c (1883); White & Hill northern private scrip 10 c (1862); Merchants & Planters $1 (1862); Augusta Insurance $1 (1861); Richmond 75c (1862); New Brunswick, New Jersey, $1 (1855); Alabama 25c & $1 (1863); Louisiana $5 (1862).

Confederate States of America. 50c (1863); 25c (1864); $10 (1861); $1 (1862), $5 (1864) I certainly hope you like this material as I am lucky to have these in duplicate I will <sup>not</sup> send any more Central or South America as you do not seem to want these. If you change your mind let me know.

The registered mail seems to be prompt and reliable so far. My wife runs a live butterfly house and we hatch butterflies from all over the world and have a large conservatory to let them fly in. We hope to grow our own caterpillars but now import the insects in their cocoon stage. This is all in a park on a not-for-profit basis.

Greetings from this part of the world. Eric P. Newman, 6450 Cecil Ave. St. Louis, MO 63105 USA

Haqqi: Fortunately no one in our family has been harmed in the recent problems of our country but concern exists as to the future and our need to protect ourselves. It is very kind of you to inquire and we thank you for your thoughtfulness. I have delayed responding to you but will do so as soon as I have time for it. About 35 per cent of the items we have received are duplications of what was previously sent. Our desire is for different items as we have no convenient way to handle others. I am glad the cost of Email you receive is reduced as our outgoing and incoming messages are without cost because the advertising we receive seems to pay the cost. Your friend

Dear Haqqi: I received your prior inquiry as to our well-being and also your 1 November 2001 message. Our family is OK but many others have problems. There will be a delay in my writing you due to several papers I am writing and lectures I am giving but I am accumulating things. I previously wrote you that about one-third of the items I received are duplications of what was previously received and should now be replaced with different items. Why don't you arrange to do that? It is always interesting to hear from you and be aware of your enthusiasm. Please accept my kind regards. Eric

Haqqi: I am glad to hear from you by Email. I already have a very large group of Russian material beginning about 1905 and running through the Soviet period. If you could make a list I could let you know whatever I do not have. I do not have higher denomination pieces of the independent republics which split off after the Soviet breakup, and only have the small ones which you sent long ago. Do you have some of the demonetized Kuwait items? Thank you for thinking of me. I hope you received my recent letter. Best wishes. Eric

I am fine and am glad that you also are. I told you in my last message that I would not be able to respond for a while as I have a limited time to complete two numismatic books. I am working steadily on that. I certainly have not forgotten you. You said you had some North Korea notes to send and you might send them any time but please do not send me more than one of each as you did in the last shipment as I have no time to trade them with others but would have to give them away.

My best to you. Eric

Dear Haqqi:

I have been overloaded with work and that is why I did not answer your last Emails. I just had a coin book I wrote published and am having serious trouble with another publisher as to a book on paper money which I have completed. I need more time to take care of you.
I just received a letter from Jigjid Gantsogt, P.O. Box 314, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia who wants to trade world wide paper money with me. Would you like to be in contact with him to make exchanges also or do you know him already? I will be glad to notify him if you want me to. I do not yet know if he has Email as he only just wrote me a letter.

My very best to you. Eric
